

TRAVEL SUBSIDY FORM

Subject to available funding, the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation (NCTR) is able to offer a limited number of travel subsidies to attend lessons learned and remembering the children memorial register events.

Please be advised there is only a small number of subsidies available on a first come first serve basis. We anticipate a large number of survivors will attend the event, so please note there is no guarantee that a subsidy will be provided.

Travel subsidies are available for Survivors who are traveling greater than 25 km driving distance to the event to a maximum of $150 per person. Preference will be given to those survivors who live outside of the city, to ensure there is surrounding community representation.

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Attend either a lessons learned or memorial register event

Priority will be given to applicants who:

- Are Residential School Survivors
Are Intergenerational Survivors
Require only a partial subsidy

To apply, please complete and return the following form.

Due to limited funding, the NCTR is unable to provide substantial subsidies to participants. We strongly encourage participants to consider group travel to assist in attending an event.
